PLACER COUNTY ILP SERVICES

The Placer County Independent Living Program (ILP) delivers high quality services in the community where foster youth are living and learning.

Our mission is to promote self-sufficiency among transition-aged youth related to personal development and resiliency, employment readiness, job placement assistance, financial independence, education, housing, and health care.

Staff approach all youth work with a lens of trauma-informed care, continually striving to provide environments that are safe, positive, predictable, consistent, and equitable.

BENEFITS OF ILP

With support from the Independent Living Program, young people will have access to many services and opportunities to help with the transition toward self-sufficiency.
